Description of Assessment 3

Speaking

- The use of dictionaries is NOT permitted during this assessment. Students are allowed to take only the Assessment paper into the room.
- The Speaking is designed to assess students' knowledge and skills in spoken Modern Greek to present and support a point of view.

Specifications

- Students will be given 7 minutes preparation time. Students may make brief notes on the Assessment paper. They may refer to these notes during the Assessment but must NOT read directly from them.
- Students will select and respond to ONE question from a choice of two. The questions will be related to the prescribed issues and will be phrased in English and Modern Greek.
- Students will speak for approximately 3 minutes in Modern Greek. Students' responses will take the form of a monologue, in which students present and support a point of view.
- Students will record their response on an MP3 file under supervision and email it with written paper.

Written assessment

Use of monolingual and/or bilingual print dictionaries IS permitted during this assessment. However, they must not be annotated.

Section I –Text Analysis Part A and Part B

- This section is designed to assess students' knowledge and understanding of the prescribed text and the relationship of the text to the issues, as well as their ability to respond to the prescribed text through the production of an original text.

Specifications

There are two parts in this section: Part A and Part B

Part A

- o This part is designed to assess students' ability to respond critically to the prescribed text.
- o Students are given a short extract from Extracts 1 to 12 of the prescribed text followed by approximately 3 questions phrased in English for answers in ENGLISH. Students will be required to analyse and evaluate aspects of the text, demonstrate knowledge and understanding of language features, content and context. Students will also be required to analyse how meaning is conveyed and explore the relationship between the prescribed text and the prescribed issues.

Part B

This part is designed to assess students' ability to respond personally and creatively in Modern Greek to the prescribed text. Students are given a short extract from the prescribed text. The extract will be different from those in Part A. The instructions will be phrased in English and Modern Greek.

- o Students will be expected to write approximately 200 words in Modern Greek on one of the extracts from 1 to 12.
- o Students will be required to respond to an aspect of the prescribed text by, for example,
  - taking the role of a character in the text
  - imagining a hypothetical situation in relation to the text
  - writing a description of an event in the text from a different perspective.
- o Students can be asked to produce the following text types: letter, diary entry, script of a conversation/speech/interview.

Section II – Writing

- o Students will be assessed on their ability to present and support a point of view about the prescribed issues through the production of an original text in Modern Greek.

Specifications

- Students will select ONE of two questions which will require the same text type. The questions will relate to the prescribed issues and will specify the audience, the purpose and the context of the response.
- The questions will be phrased in both English and Modern Greek and will require a response of approximately 300 words in Modern Greek.
- Students will be required to write a short essay, article, script of a talk, conversation, or formal letter in which they present and evaluate or justify a point of view.
