English as a Second Language by Distance Education

NSW School of Languages offers Stage 6 ESL for Year 11 and 12 ESL students.

- The online course is purpose written for Distance Education and is an ATAR course.
- Lessons are taught by video conference, usually individually or in groups of two, with students receiving concentrated teacher-student attention.
- Students spend two full lessons per week, usually 45-50 minutes each, with their teacher.
- Rural or regional NSW Department of Education students only are able to apply.

Students are eligible if:

- the student has been educated in English for 5 years or less prior to commencing Year 11
- the student is a refugee and/or has had interrupted schooling
- the student has reached Phase 2 level English
- the student has completed the New Arrivals Program or has received instruction in English for at least one year with support from an ESL teacher
- Stage 6 ESL is not offered at the home school.
