About NSL

NSW School of Languages is a distance education Languages specialist school. We are part of a network of Department of Education schools that provide online Languages to students by distance education.

Subject to satisfying certain guidelines, students in NSW secondary and central schools may enrol to study a language course not available to them at their home school. Enrolment is available to Years 9-12 students from NSW public schools and other educational providers.

Learning is supported through a diverse program of engaging online courses, speaking lessons, and face-to-face lesson days at our campus in Petersham.

Face-to-face lesson days are held once per term and give students the opportunity to meet and learn with other students, whilst being immersed in the culture of the language of study.

Stage 5 YEARS 9 AND 10

Years 9 and 10 students work through an online course developed specifically for distance education.

The Stage 5 course is taught using interactive eLearning tasks, virtual lessons, and face-to-face lesson days.

A wide variety of audio, video and visual materials bring the study of the language and culture alive.

Regular speaking lessons with the teacher enable the quick resolution of any questions about the coursework.

Face-to-face lessons, whether on campus or virtual, enable students and teachers to interact with each other to practice their language skills.

Stage 6 YEARS 11 AND 12

At NSW School of Languages, Years 11 and 12 students are offered the opportunity to undertake Indonesian Beginners, Continuers and Extension courses under the expert guidance of our experienced and creative teaching staff.

Our integrated and innovative learning activities enhance students' ability to communicate in Indonesian and to understand and appreciate the many diverse cultural contexts in which Indonesian is used.

Language is studied through texts of various forms and media such as songs, technology and video clips, and students are provided with the opportunity to interact and practice their language skills in our engaging and enjoyable face-to-face lessons.

Your amazing Indonesian language journey awaits you!
