Celebration of Excellence

Friday 28 October 2022 is World Teachers Day and the Professional Teachers' Council New South Wales (PTC NSW) joins the media in the recognition and celebration of our teachers across all sectors and systems in NSW and the teaching profession.

World Teachers' Day acknowledges the professionalism and dedication of teachers and their invaluable contribution to the future of our society through their professional teaching associations.

"World Teachers' Day is an important occasion to recognise and honour the work of all teachers. Teachers tirelessly and selflessly give so much of themselves and their time to students and the community. Many even find more time to volunteer to support their teaching associations," said Karen Yager, President of PTC NSW.

"When we consider the looming teacher shortage and the recent Monash University report on why teachers are leaving the profession, it is imperative that we acknowledge, support and respect the

In recognition of the outstanding work teachers undertake through their professional teaching associations the Professional Teachers' Council NSW awards the prestigious Outstanding Professional Service Awards (OPSA) as an acknowledgment of excellence in the profession.

The Outstanding Beginning Teacher Award (OBTA) recognises the outstanding professional contribution by an individual committee member (of a Professional Teachers' Association) with five or less years teaching experience in education in NSW.

These awards acknowledge the outstanding professional contribution to education made by teachers through Professional Teaching Associations across all sectors and systems of NSW.

The Professional Teachers' Council NSW is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2022 awards.
